MEGA LAW - ENTRANCE TEST SYLLABUS (For CLAT 2027 Aspirants)

🎓Who Can Apply:

- Class 11 students (CLAT 2027 aspirants)
- Drop-year students who will pass Class 12 in 2026 and will appear for CLAT/AILET in 2026 for CLAT/AILET 2027 Batch

---

📅Test Dates:

- 7th September 2025 (Sunday)
- 14th September 2025 (Sunday)
- 21st September 2025 (Sunday)

Time: 4:00 PM to 6:00 PM\ Mode: Online (Details will be shared upon registration)

🕰Test Format:

- 100 Questions | 100 Minutes | Multiple Choice Format

Sections:

1. English Comprehension – 25 Questions
2. Logical & Analytical Reasoning – 40 Questions
3. Quantitative Aptitude – 10 Questions
4. General Knowledge & Awareness – 25 Questions

📊Syllabus Breakdown:

1. English Comprehension (Class 10 level)

- Reading comprehension
- Vocabulary & synonyms/antonyms
- Idioms and phrases

2. Logical & Analytical Reasoning

- Statement and Conclusion, Assumption, Inference
- Cause and Effect
- Strong & Weak Arguments
- Syllogisms
- Analogies (verbal)
- Blood relations
- Series & sequences
- Coding-decoding
- Directions

- Odd one out
- Puzzles (including seating, ranking, matrix)
- Pattern recognition and elimination

3. Quantitative Aptitude (Basic Maths till Class 10)

- Percentages
- Profit & loss
- Averages
- Time, speed & distance
- Ratio & proportion
- Simple interest
- Basic data interpretation (tables & charts)

4. General Knowledge & Awareness

- Basic static GK (history, geography, civics till Class 10 level)
- Indian Constitution (very basic awareness)
- Recent important national events (last 3–6 months)
- Awareness of legal professions and courts (basic only)
- Observation-based and moral reasoning questions

🔗 Note:

- The test is skill-based, not coaching-based.
- We only test concepts and awareness every student is expected to have by Class 10.
- No legal technical knowledge required.
- No calculators or external support allowed during the test.

🧱 Only the Top 50 students will be selected across all test dates. Admissions will close once the batch is full. So don't wait for the last test day.